

BARRY WONG

Corporation Commission 2010

- Energy:
 - Demanding Diverse and Reliable Energy – including Nuclear
 - Promoting Renewable Energy – Biomass, Solar, Wind
 - Oppose costly Cap and Trade proposals
- Rates: Holding the Line on Excessive Rate Hikes
- Water: Ensuring Quality and Reliable Water
- Anti-Fraud: Protecting Citizens from Investment Fraud

About Barry Wong

- Arizona Corporation Commission: Appointed to fill an open seat in 2006; involved with renewable energy, electricity, water, telecommunication and investment regulation
- Arizona House of Representatives: Four terms championing technology, renewable energy, higher education and small business
- Professional experiences - lawyer, accountant; finance and business
- ASU - B.S. in Accounting / Alhambra High School - Phoenix
- U of A - Law Degree / Thunderbird, School of Global Management - Leadership Program
- Native Arizonan

ABOUT THE CORPORATION COMMISSION

- Impacts every individual, business and entity in Arizona
- Regulates utilities - reliability, supply and rates charged for electricity, telephone, natural gas and water (non-municipal)
- Economic development - oversees formation and renewal of corporations and LLCs
- Investment integrity - license and enforce laws on investments and investment advisors
- Safety of railroads and pipelines which deliver natural gas and fuel for cars, trucks, airlines

www.BarryWong.com

To Help, Call 602.850.4300 or e-mail to Barry@BarryWong.com

Paid for by Barry Wong for Corporation Commission 2010